UF | UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

CityLab-Jacksonville

School of Architecture & College of Design Construction and Planning

Nancy Clark, Director
Ivan Smith, Distinguished Professor

Program Overview

- Programs and Competencies

Master of Architecture (M.Arch) - Professional Degree, NAAB Accredited Program

Three (3) Tracks:

Track I: Adv. M.Arch, 52 credits, two years, req. pre-professional B.Arch

Track II: Post-Professional, 36 credits, one year, reqs. M.Arch or professional B.Arch

Track III: M.Arch,100 credits, four years, reqs. Bachelor in any area

M.S. Architectural Studies (MSAS)- Non-Professional Degree, 36 credit hours, one year

Concentrations/Focus Areas:

AI and Architecture, Healthcare Design Integration, Public Interest Design, Themed Environments, Sustainable Design and Resilient Urbanism, Building Technologies, Historic Preservation

Graduate Certificate Degrees- Academic & Professional Advancement, varies 9-15 credits

Concentrations/Focus Areas:

AI and Architecture, Healthcare Design Integration, Public Interest Design, Themed Environments, Sustainable Design and Resilient Urbanism, Building Technologies, Historic Preservation

- Enrollment

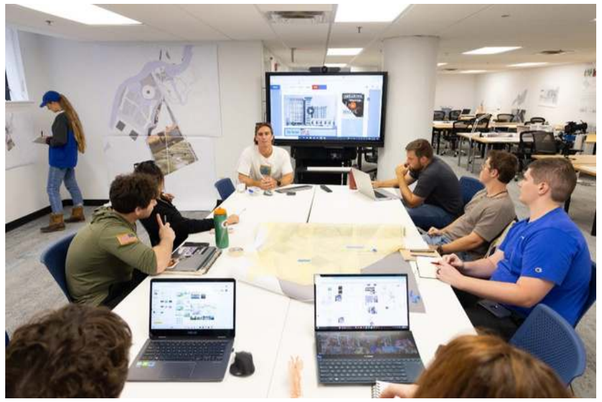
Current enrollment = 40 students; Capacity = 150 + students in all programs



M.Arch Studio group discussion session

Student-Community-Industry Presentation, Reception

Jacksonville Engagement

Ongoing -

- CityLab-Jacksonville has a multifaceted relationships with several Agencies and Non-Profits -through collaborative projects and courses, workshops, lectures, and research activities- including: JEA, JTA, St. John River Keepers, UF Health External Affairs and Community Engagement , City of Jacksonville Office of Resilience, City of Jacksonville Parks Recreation and Community Services , Groundwork Jax, LIFT Jax, Riverfront Parks Now, Florida Trust for Historic Preservation, LISC, Jessie Ball DuPont Foundation, Okefenokee Swamp Park, United Way of NE Florida, and Historic Eastside Community Development
- Our Industry Partners include: Haskell, LS3P, Kasper, Gresham Smith, RS&H, Dasher Hurst, AIA Jacksonville, Modern Cities.org, Community Planning Collaborative

Okefenokee Swamp Park Site Visit

St. John River Keepers and Modern Cities.org Field Trip

Construction Site visit to “The Hub” Brooklyn

Seminar training session

Jacksonville Engagement

Opportunities -

- Academic engagement such as co-creating courses and projects, sponsored studios, field trips, mentoring, and municipal, community and/or professional labs/seminar/training sessions
- Extra curricular activities such as sponsored lectures, conferences and symposia, and community workshops/charrettes
- Industry collaboration: IPAL (Integrated Path to Architecture Licensure), internships, site/office visits, guest speakers, adjuncts
- Real-world projects and research: JaxTwin Digital Twin, Jacksonville Sustainable Supportive Housing Project (LS3P Foundation), Eastside Housing and Healthy Community Design Charrette (HECDC-Jax), DCP Smart Cities Initiative Jacksonville

Okefenokee Swamp Park Site Visit

St. John River Keepers and Modern Cities.org Field Trip

Construction Site visit to “The Hub” Brooklyn

Seminar training session