UF | UNIVERSITY of FLORIDA

Master of Studies in Law

Jennifer McIntyre – Assistant Dean for Online and Graduate Programs and Students

Master of Studies in Law (MSL) – Program Overview

- 30-credit graduate degree
- Available fully online or in person in Jacksonville,
- Designed for working professionals who work adjacent to the law (non-attorneys)
- Flexible format: complete in as little as 1 year or up to 5 years
- Average completion: ~2 years

What Students Gain:

- Understanding of how law intersects with their profession
- Skills in legal interpretation and contract review
- Ability to perform basic legal analysis
- Practical knowledge of industry-relevant legal frameworks

Program Timeline:

- Online format launched: Fall 2025
- In-person classes (Jacksonville): Launching Fall 2026

Concentrations:

- Tax Compliance, Healthcare Compliance, Financial Services and Estate Planning or General MSL

How Jacksonville Leaders Can Support the MSL Program

Engage
Participate in our speaker series to share industry insights and leadership experiences

Mentor
Provide mentorship to students across diverse professional backgrounds
Support career growth through guidance, coaching, and networking opportunities

Partner
Collaborate with us to organize virtual or in-person open houses
Form a company cohort by enrolling a small group of employees to progress through the program together

About Our MSL Cohort
Our inaugural cohort includes high-caliber professionals—from nurse practitioners to VPs of finance and beyond. Students bring diverse perspectives, leadership experience, and a strong commitment to growth. We welcome organizations interested in building a dedicated cohort to move through the program as a team